With e3 Global Adventures we offer you the chance to access our significant travel knowledge. We use this knowledge to develop a completely personalised itinerary for you, your community organisation or corporate group.

All our itineraries incorporate a community service project or social justice learning component. This is because we believe everyone can learn so much by working alongside people from other countries and cultures, developing an understanding of their values, beliefs and way of life.

Our projects are well researched, ethical, accountable and meaningful for the local communities and our travellers. And, of course, all our community service projects operate on a not for profit basis.

As experienced group travel organisers we can tailor a package which will meet your organisational requirements – from team building experiences and challenges to special interest activities. We will work with you to turn your ideas into reality!

We offer you a total trip planning experience – from itinerary planning to costing, from recruitment to educational resources. Our philosophy is to educate prior to travel, experience to the max and empower participants to believe in their ability to change the world, and themselves.

The e3 Global Adventures philosophy:

1. Educate 2. Experience 3. Empower

e3 global adventures
educate . experience . empower

Not your average travel experience!

Amazing South East Asian travel experiences for community groups, corporate groups or individuals. Immersive and connecting – real travel with lasting outcomes!

Community groups

Do you belong to a community or special interest group? Is your group seeking a really worthwhile project? A project they can really get their teeth into to engage members, promote a real sense of belonging, worth and team spirit. e3 Global Adventures can work with you to turn your ideas into reality!

- Personalised itinerary planning incorporating special interests – from cycling to cooking!
- Connect with an ethical and sustainable community service project
- Link with the best travel service providers, tour leaders and local guides
- Pre-trip learning materials, travel advice and organisational assistance
- And much, much more!

Corporate groups

Imagine a team from your business or organisation connecting with a remote community in Laos, working alongside the local people to help them build a kitchen for their small hospital.

e3 Global Adventures can help you to build your team itinerary, incorporating a range of experiences. Maximise the opportunity to enhance your business profile through genuine connections with communities across South East Asia.

- Personalised itinerary development which includes your corporate objectives, requirements and outcomes for the project
- Team building activities can be included in a variety of ways – from ATV challenges to hill climbs
- Connect with an ethical and sustainable community service project with potential to build both team and client loyalty and support
- Fully guided using only the best travel service providers
- Pre-trip learning materials, group meeting support and more!

Individuals

As independent travellers ourselves we recognise that not everyone wants the whole group tour experience. That's why we have developed a specialised travel product for people just like you! We offer immersive adventures to groups of individuals – you have all the convenience and security of travelling as part group without being locked into activities and eating arrangements. Each group commits to spending time working on a community service project and that is the only group commitment required. It's truly the best of worth worlds!

- Link in with a pre-arranged group departure
- Travel to two or three destinations over a two week period – allowing for a more immersive experience and greater connection with local communities
- Participate in a worthwhile and sustainable community service project as part of your travel experience
- Access our resource library before you travel so you get to understand more about the countries and cultures you are about to connect with

Testimonials

“ Wow! What an adventure. I did an adult trip with e3 through Laos and Cambodia that changed my views of the world, and my life. It wasn't the 'Contiki' experience – we saw things that you don't see on organised tours. We saw and interacted with local, raw cultures and learnt that we can help. A truly amazing experience!

– Bec, community group participant ”

“ I never thought I would travel overseas – it was a bit intimidating thinking of going that far, worrying about the food and whether I would cope. When my sister said she was going on a trip with e3, I thought it might be an opportunity for me to take part in a once in a lifetime experience. Now I've just signed up for my third trip with e3! I see things I know I wouldn't see as part of a normal organised tour. We link up with really worthwhile community projects. So far I've delivered books to kids in remote villages and taught conversational English to street kids. I've eaten traditional food in village homes and made friends across the world! I'm addicted to travel and my life will never be the same!
